Read :-

Letter No.341/F.1-28 dated the 29th April 1920, from the Census Superintendent in Mysore requesting sanction to the exemption from the operation of rule 2 of the Clerkship rules of clerks appointed in the Census Department and adding that two places one on Rs.30-2/1-36 and the other on Rs.25-2/1-31 in his office have been filled up in anticipation of sanction to the exemption recommended.

Order thereon No. 2105-6 L&Ag 442

Dated, Bangalore, May 1920.

The establishment of the Census Department is exempted from the operation of the clerkship rules in view of the special nature of the work and purely temporary tenure of the department.

Sd. C.S. Balasundaram Iyer,
Chief Secretary to Government.

To

The Census Superintendent in Mysore.
The Comptroller, Mysore Government.
